ANNOUNCEMENT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi, in partnership with the Office of the United States Attorney, announces the third annual Pro Bono Work to Empower and Represent Act (“POWER”) CLE conference for attorneys. This year’s event is entitled “Using POWER Collaboration to Bring Awareness to Drug Endangered Children, Missing Persons, and Human Trafficking in Mississippi” and will be conducted Wednesday, August 25, 2021, from 1:30 pm until 4:00 pm by video conference.

To ensure full CLE credit, attorneys should register at <https://www.mssd.uscourts.gov/content/power-act-cle-registration-form> or by calling Karen Shearer at 601-608-4010.

The event will be hosted by Chief U. S. District Judge Daniel P. Jordan III. Stacey Read and Eric Nation with the National Alliance for Drug Endangered Children, Arielle Curry, Anti-Trafficking Program Coordinator for the Salvation Army, B.J. Spamer, National Director of the National Missing and Unidentified Persons System, and Gwen Packard with the Native Indigenous Women’s Resource Center are the featured speakers. Topics will relate to methods to promote Pro bono legal services relating to creating drug endangered children’s alliances in Mississippi communities, human trafficking, missing persons, and a means of engaging citizens in assisting members of the community faced with these issues.
